

Placówka "Estezet"
L.dz. 1058 /44
New York 24.X.44
Akcja American
Russian Institute.

Handwritten:
Kard. 10/21/44
J

1058

Szef Oddz. Inf. Wyw. Szt. N.W.
/ przez Szefa Wydz. Wyw./

Melduję, że istniejący w New Yorku "The American Russian Institute od pewnego czasu wzmógł swoją aktywność propagandową. Staraniem tego instytutu wygłaszane są wykłady o Z.S.S.R.

Instytut mieści się w New Yorku przy 58 Park Avenue. Prezesem Instytutu jest obywatel amerykański Maxwell S. STEWART wydawca i autor kilku publikacji.

Przedstawiam poniżej spis prelegentów oraz wykładów połączonych z dyskusjami mającymi się odbyć w New Yorku w czasie od 20 października do 10 grudnia b.r.

THE NATIONS AND THE PEOPLES

OCTOBER 22

The sixteen constituent republics and the many smaller nationalities of this multi-national country. Soviet policy concerning nationalities.

CORLISS LAMONT

Chairman, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship; autor and teacher at Columbia and Harvard Universities.

ONE-SIXTH OF THE EARTH

OCTOBER 27

The human and natural resources of the U.S.S.R. One region will be considered as an example of how the Soviet people have changed their environment and how their environment affects them.

PROFESSOR GEORGE B. CRESSEY

Chairman, Department of Geology and Geography, Syracuse University; autor of Asia's Land and Peoples.

SOVIET GOVERNMENT

NOVEMBER 5

How the state is organized and functions. The work of lower and higher organs of government. Popular participation. Democracy vs. dictatorship.

MAXWELL S. STEWART

Editor, Public Affairs Committee; Associate Editor, The Nation; autor of Building For Peace at Home and Abroad.

905

SOVIET ECONOMY

NOVEMBER 12

Socialist production in industry and agriculture. How the national income is apportioned. Planning, finance, and foreign trade.

VLADIMIR D. KAZAKEVICH

Leading authority on Soviet economics; former lecturer at Columbia and Cornell Universities; autor of numerous books on economics.

THE SOVIET ARTS

NOVEMBER 19

Literature, music, the graphic arts and especially the theater in the U.S.S.R. How the Soviets strive to make art a living part of all citizens' experience. The lecture will be illustrated with slides.

HENRY W.L. DANA

Lecturer and autor of Handbook of the Soviet Drama.

EDUCATION AND THE SOCIAL SERVICES

NOVEMBER 26

The educational program from infancy through adult life. Content, methods and materials of education. How health is protected and disease cured. Old age, sickness, and disability insurance.

ROSE MAURER

Autor of Soviet Children and Their Care and Soviet Health Protection in Peace and War; teacher and lecturer.

THE SOVIET REBUILD

DECEMBER 3

The reconstruction of devastated regions. The development of the Urals and Central Asia. Preservation of human and cultural values. Popular participation in the great tasks of rebuilding.

EUGENE KISSELEV

Consul General of the U.S.S.R. in New York.

THE SOVIET UNION IN THE UNITED NATIONS

DECEMBER 10

Background of Soviet international relations. The significance of the Teheran Conference. Soviet policy in the post-war world. International organization. American-Russian relations.

Kierownik Placówki

Maracy
Maracz B

OUR SOVIET ALLY

A Survey of the U.S.S.R.

THE AMERICAN RUSSIAN INSTITUTE

58 PARK AVENUE
NEW YORK 16, N. Y.
LExington 2-5472

Eight Lecture Discussions

Sunday evenings at 8:00 P.M., Oct. 22 — Dec. 10, 1944

MAXWELL S. STEWART, Chairman

"You cannot have solid friendship until you have solid understanding. . . . Let there be more Soviets who know the Mississippi valley. Let there be more Americans who know the valley of the Volga."

—ERIC A. JOHNSTON
Moscow, July 13, 1944

The Nations and the Peoples

October 22

The sixteen constituent republics and the many smaller nationalities of this multi-national country. Soviet policy concerning nationalities.

CORLISS LAMONT

Chairman, National Council of American-Soviet Friendship;
author and teacher at Columbia and Harvard Universities.

One-Sixth of the Earth

October 27

The human and natural resources of the U.S.S.R. One region will be considered as an example of how the Soviet people have changed their environment and how their environment affects them.

PROFESSOR GEORGE B. CRESSEY

Chairman, Department of Geology and Geography, Syracuse University; author of Asia's Land and Peoples.

Soviet Government

November 5

How the socialist state is organized and functions. The work of lower and higher organs of government. Popular participation. Democracy vs. dictatorship.

MAXWELL S. STEWART

Editor, Public Affairs Committee; Associate Editor, The Nation; author of Building For Peace at Home and Abroad.

Soviet Economy

November 12

Socialist production in industry and agriculture. How the national income is apportioned. Planning, finance, and foreign trade.

VLADIMIR D. KAZAKEVICH

Leading authority on Soviet economics; former lecturer at Columbia and Cornell Universities; author of numerous books on economics.

The Soviet Arts

November 19

Literature, music, the graphic arts and especially the theater in the U.S.S.R. How the Soviets strive to make art a living part of all citizens' experience. The lecture will be illustrated with slides.

HENRY W. L. DANA

Lecturer and author of Handbook of the Soviet Drama.

Education and the Social Services

November 26

The educational program from infancy through adult life. Content, methods and materials of education. How health is protected and disease cured. Old age, sickness, and disability insurance.

ROSE MAURER

Author of Soviet Children and Their Care and Soviet Health Protection in Peace and War; teacher and lecturer.

The Soviets Rebuild

December 3

The reconstruction of devastated regions. The development of the Urals and Central Asia. Preservation of human and cultural values. Popular participation in the great tasks of rebuilding.

EUGENE KISSELEV

Consul General of the U.S.S.R. in New York.

The Soviet Union in the United Nations

December 10

Background of Soviet international relations. The significance of the Teheran Conference. Soviet policy in the post-war world. International organization. American-Russian relations.

FEE FOR THE SERIES $10.00

THE AMERICAN RUSSIAN INSTITUTE

58 Park Ave., New York 16, N.Y.

LExington 2-5472

I wish to register for the lecture discussion series Our Soviet Ally. Please reserve _____ places for me.

Enclosed is $_____

I will pay for the course at the first meeting.

Name _____

Address _____

J. Niska
151 E 67 St
NYC

Sec. 562 P. L. & R.